SECTION B — Short Answer Questions (2 Marks each)

1. What does "Together We Can" teach us about teamwork? (0 Marks)

- It teaches that when people work together, help each other, and trust one another, they can overcome challenges that might be difficult to face alone.

2. Why does the poem say "win or lose, we always share"? (0 Marks)

- This shows that true friendship and teamwork matter more than winning, and that friends support and share with each other regardless of the outcome.

3. Describe what happened to Chinna in "The Tinkling Bells". (0 Marks)

- Chinna's grandfather gave him money to buy tinkling bells, but he lost the money, which made him very upset.

4. How did Kamala show kindness in the story? (0 Marks)

- Kamala comforted Chinna when he was upset, promised to help him get the bells, and took him to the market to buy them.

5. Why is it important to have kind friends like Kamala? (0 Marks)

- Kind friends help us feel better during difficult times and offer support and solutions, making problems easier to face.

6. What are two things you should do to stay safe while walking on the road? (0 Marks)

- You should always walk on the footpath and use a zebra crossing when crossing the road.

7. Why is it unsafe to run while crossing the road? (0 Marks)

- Running while crossing can make it harder to notice oncoming traffic and can lead to accidents, so it is safer to walk carefully and stay alert.

8. Why is wearing bright or visible clothing important in the evening? (0 Marks)

- Bright or visible clothing helps drivers see pedestrians more easily in low light, reducing the risk of accidents.

9. What lesson can we learn from combining "Together We Can" and "The Tinkling Bells"? (0 Marks)

- Both stories show that friendship, trust, and helping one another make difficult situations easier to handle and bring people closer together.

10. Why do you think the chapter "Be Smart, Be Safe" is important for children to learn? (0 Marks)

- It teaches children important safety habits that can protect them from accidents, especially when walking or crossing roads.

SECTION C — Short Answer Questions (Explain) (3 Marks each)

1. Explain the central theme of "Together We Can" and how the poem conveys this message. (0 Marks)

- The poem's central theme is the power and importance of teamwork and trust between friends.
- It uses lines about standing "strong and tall" together and never falling because of mutual support to show how teamwork helps overcome challenges.
- The poem also emphasises that sharing, whether in winning or losing, keeps the bond between friends strong, reinforcing that relationships matter more than outcomes.

2. Describe the events of "The Tinkling Bells" in order, and explain what the story teaches about friendship. (0 Marks)

- The story begins with Chinna receiving money from his grandfather to buy tinkling bells, but he loses the money and becomes upset.
- Kamala notices his distress, comforts him, and offers to help him get the bells he wanted.
- The story teaches that true friends support each other during difficult moments and find solutions together, showing the value of kindness and companionship.

3. Explain why following road safety rules, as described in "Be Smart, Be Safe", is important for children specifically. (0 Marks)

- Children are often smaller and less visible to drivers, making them more vulnerable to accidents if they do not follow safety rules.
- Learning rules like using zebra crossings, walking on footpaths, and staying alert helps children develop safe habits early in life.
- These habits can protect children throughout their lives, not just during childhood, since safe road behaviour is a lifelong skill.

4. Compare the values shown in "Together We Can" and "The Tinkling Bells" - what do both stories have in common? (0 Marks)

- Both stories highlight the importance of supporting others, whether through teamwork (Together We Can) or personal kindness (The Tinkling Bells).
- In both cases, characters help each other through difficulties, showing that cooperation and empathy lead to positive outcomes.
- This shared theme suggests that the unit as a whole is teaching children about the value of helping and supporting one another.

SECTION D — Long Answer Questions (5 Marks each)

1. Write a detailed paragraph explaining what all three chapters (Together We Can, The Tinkling Bells, Be Smart Be Safe) teach us about caring for ourselves and others. (0 Marks)

- "Together We Can" teaches that teamwork and mutual support help us face challenges and achieve goals together, strengthening our bonds with others.
- "The Tinkling Bells" teaches that kindness and friendship can help someone through a difficult moment, showing the importance of noticing and helping others in need.
- "Be Smart, Be Safe" teaches us how to care for our own safety, especially around roads and traffic, through simple but important habits.
- Together, these three chapters combine lessons about caring for others (teamwork and kindness) with caring for ourselves (safety), giving a well-rounded set of values for young readers to learn.

2. Retell the story of "The Tinkling Bells" in your own words, and explain how Kamala's actions reflect the message of "Together We Can". (0 Marks)

- The story is about a boy named Chinna, who is given money by his grandfather to buy tinkling bells, but he loses the money and becomes very upset.
- His friend Kamala notices his sadness, comforts him, and takes him to the market, helping him get the bells he wanted.
- Kamala's actions reflect the message of "Together We Can" because she shows how working together and supporting a friend in need can turn a difficult situation into a happy outcome.
- This connection between the two chapters shows how teamwork and kindness are related values that both lead to positive results when people help each other.
