 - They do not trust each other
 - They only trust each other when winning
 - Their friendship is built on strong, lasting trust
 - Trust is not important to them
- Why might the author have chosen to show Chinna feeling upset before Kamala helps him in "The Tinkling Bells"? (1 Mark)
 - To make the story boring
 - It has no particular reason
 - To highlight the positive impact of Kamala's kindness by contrast
 - To show that losing money does not matter
- What does Kamala's decision to help Chinna reveal about her character? (1 Mark)
 - She is selfish
 - She is careless
 - She is caring, kind, and a supportive friend
 - She dislikes Chinna
- Why is the instruction "look right, then left, then right again" repeated with "right" twice? (1 Mark)
 - It is a mistake in the text
 - It has no particular purpose
 - To double-check that no vehicle is approaching from the right before crossing, since that is the nearer lane in left-hand traffic
 - Because right is more important than left
- What is the connection between wearing visible clothing and road safety at night or in the evening? (1 Mark)
 - There is no connection
 - Visible clothing has nothing to do with safety
 - Visible clothing helps drivers spot pedestrians more easily, preventing accidents

- How does the poem "Together We Can" use words like "stand", "helping", and "sing" to build its message? (1 Mark)
 - These words show conflict between friends
 - These words are unrelated to the poem's theme
 - These words show unity, support, and shared joy among friends
 - These words suggest sadness
- What lesson from "The Tinkling Bells" might help a child in a similar real-life situation (like losing something important)? (1 Mark)
 - Hide your feelings and tell no one
 - Nothing can be done if something is lost
 - It is okay to feel upset, and seeking help from a trusted friend can lead to a solution
 - Blame others for the loss
- Why does "Be Smart, Be Safe" specifically mention avoiding headphones near roads, rather than just saying "be careful"? (1 Mark)
 - It has no specific reason
 - Headphones are unrelated to safety
 - It gives a clear, specific example of a distraction to avoid, making the advice more practical and actionable
 - The advice is meant to be vague
- What common value connects "Together We Can" and "Be Smart, Be Safe", even though one is about teamwork and the other about safety? (1 Mark)
 - Both are about ignoring others
 - They share no common value
 - Both are about caring - caring for friends (teamwork) and caring for oneself and others (safety)
 - Both are about competition

- Explain why "Be Smart, Be Safe" likely uses simple, direct instructions (like "stop, look, cross") rather than long explanations. (0 Marks)

7. Why might the theme of trust, mentioned in "Together We Can", also apply indirectly to the relationship between Chinna and Kamala in "The Tinkling Bells"? (0 Marks)
8. Discuss why teaching children about both teamwork/friendship AND personal safety might be considered complementary lessons for this stage of school. (0 Marks)

13. Explain why zebra crossings are specifically designed and marked, rather than allowing people to cross anywhere. (0 Marks)

SECTION C — Short Answer Questions (Explain) (3 Marks each)

1. Analyse how "Together We Can" uses poetic devices (rhyme, repetition, imagery) to make its message about teamwork memorable for young readers. (0 Marks)
2. Discuss how "The Tinkling Bells" balances a realistic, relatable problem (losing money) with a hopeful, positive resolution, and explain why this balance matters for young readers. (0 Marks)
3. Evaluate whether the road safety instructions in "Be Smart, Be Safe" are equally easy to remember and apply, or if some instructions might be harder for young children to follow consistently. (0 Marks)
