SECTION – A (READING) — 6 Marks

Read the passage and the poems below and answer the questions that follow.

It was a summer afternoon, and Gopi was reading a book in the veranda when he heard a rustling sound followed by a thud in the garden. Thinking a mango had fallen, he ran outside to look. After searching near the fence and among the bushes, he found nothing — until he noticed a heap of dry leaves with a white ball resting on top. It was a hockey ball.

That evening, Gopi took the ball to the playground, where his friends regularly gathered to play hockey, and asked if anyone had lost one. Manoj said he had lost his ball four months ago, so Gopi knew it couldn't be his. Ramani claimed it might be hers, while Deepak boasted about the brand-new football his father had just bought him. Since no one could prove ownership, the friends decided to use the ball to play a game.

During the game, Jay hit the ball so hard that it flew past the playground gate and landed in the basket of a passing scooter. The rider, unaware of what had happened, drove off — taking the ball with him. The children looked at each other and burst into laughter.

(Adapted from 'Gone with the Scooter')

Papa's Spectacles

Today our papa
Is searching everywhere,
He has lost his spectacles,
It was his only pair!

He can't read the newspaper,
He can't watch TV,
He can't cut the vegetables,
Oh! Where can it be?

He checked inside his pockets,
He glanced under his chair,
He searched near the window,
He looked everywhere.

I told him, 'Stop, Papa!'
I went up close, and said!
'Papa, your spectacles
Are right there on your head!'

The Rainbow — Christina Rossetti

Boats sail on the rivers,
And ships sail on the seas;
But clouds that sail across the sky
Are prettier far than these.

There are bridges on the rivers,
As pretty as you please;
But the bow that bridges heaven,
And overtops the trees,
And builds a road from earth to sky,
Is prettier far than these.
